Author Amanda Kimberley has been writing for over three decades. She is a no nonsense nonfiction writer by day that focuses mostly on the health condition known as Fibromyalgia. Aside from her Amazon best seller Fibromyalgia and Sex Can be a Pain in the Neck, Amanda Kimberley has achieved many awards and recognition for her writing in other genres. Her blog, Fibro and Fabulous has been recognized by Health Magazine, Health Line, and other various organizations, websites, and magazines as a top blog for Fibromyalgia sufferers. She has been recognized in poetry for two decades and awarded the Editor's Choice Award for excellence in poetry, as well as being recognized as one of the Best Poets of the nineties. Fibromyalgia and Pregnancy is Kimberley's third and latest book to the Fibro and Fabulous series and discusses what every Fibro Mom should know about pregnancy. It offers tips and tricks to help alleviate both Fibromyalgia and pregnancy symptoms through extensive research and real-life experiences.
